Maternity Support Program. Call to start today.

If you're thinking about having a baby, or you have one already on the way, our Maternity Support Program is here for you. Enroll in our no-cost program and as a PayPal plan member, you can earn $250. You'll have access to an experienced maternity nurse by phone who can:

- Answer your questions on everything from pre-conception health to newborn care.
- Offer support throughout the pregnancy and after birth.
- Provide specialized resources if your pregnancy is considered high-risk to help you stay healthy and prevent premature birth.
- Help you feel your best — physically and emotionally — after your baby is born.

Sign up for the Maternity Support Program before your 37th week of pregnancy. You'll need to complete an initial assessment and final outcome assessment after you deliver to earn $250. A check will be mailed to you approximately eight weeks after baby's delivery.
